

CHECHEN REPUBLIC

The Chechen Republic is a republic (subject) within the Russian Federation. It is part of the North Caucasus Federal District.

The capital is the city of Grozny

According to changes in the Constitution of the Russian Federation, it was formed on December 10, 1992.

The population of the republic is 1,267,740 people (January 1, 2010). The population density is 85 people/km<sup>2</sup> (2009), the share of the urban population is 35.3% (2010).

Горы Чечни. Ущелье Шаро-Аргун. Хисой, Шарой © silver

STATE DEVICE CAPITAL

7 Currently, according to the wording of the Constitution of the Chechen Republic, Chechnya is a democratic legal state within the Russian Federation. State power in the Chechen Republic is divided into independent branches - legislative, executive and judicial (Article 4.5 of the Constitution of the Chechen Republic).

The city of Grozny is the capital of the Chechen Republic.

REPUBLIC SYMBOLS, ANTHEM, REPUBLIC DAY

Meaning of colorstlag: green color represents nature, freedom and revival; red the color symbolizes the courage and strength of the Chechen people; white the color is between green and red and signifies world peace and good thoughts.

The coat of arms of the Chechen Republic is a silver circle with a triple border on a silver field.
Dayrepublics- 6 September

Hymn:

GEOGRAPHY

The Chechen Republic is located in the central part of the northern slope of the Greater Caucasus, the adjacent Chechen Plain and the Terek-Kuma Lowland.

The length of the territory from north to south is 170 kilometers, from west to east - 110 kilometers.

It borders: in the south - with the Republic of Georgia, in the southeast, east and northeast - with the Republic of Dagestan, in the northwest - with the Stavropol Territory, in the west - with the Republic of Ingushetia.

NATURAL RESOURCES, CLIMATE

The main natural resources of the Republic of Chechnya: oil (associated gas condensate), gas, hydropower resources of mountain rivers, construction materials, mineral springs and geothermal waters, agroclimatic, recreational resources, as well as zeolites.

The climate is continental, but despite its relatively small territory, the Chechen Republic is characterized by a significant variety of climatic conditions. These include steppe and forest landscapes, the foothills of the Caucasus, basins with subalpine meadows, and highlands where the snow never melts.

POPULATION

The population of the republic, according to Rosstat, is 1,552,866 people. (2024). The only predominant ethnic group is the Chechens (1,031,647 people, 93.5% in 2002), who constitute the absolute majority in all regions of the republic. The second largest ethnic group are Russians (24,382 people, 1.92%), who are settled mainly in the city of Grozny (5,295 people, 2.5%), as well as Naursky (6,538 people, 12.8%. %) and Shelkovsky (3992 people, 7.9%) districts.

Historical and natural attractions for tourists and guests of the republic

Argun Museum-Reserve

Palace of Receptions

Mosque "Heart of Chechnya" named after Akhmat Kadyrov